

Nurse Practitioner – Whistler, British Columbia

Mobile Medical Corporation, premier provider of on-site occupational and wellness services in a clinical setting, seeking a full-time Nurse Practitioner to work at our client site - Whistler Blackcomb Ski Resort - in Whistler, British Columbia.

Responsibilities:

- Triage injuries to determine if injuries can be treated on-site, or if off-site medical care is required, and determine appropriate method of transportation and appropriate level of off-site treatment
- Managed care of injured employees with panel physicians
- Maintain patient treatment files for workplace injuries
- Communicate with hospital/clinic staff regarding off-site treatment to injured staff
- Provide Follow up care and create modified duty programs
- Develop Corporate Wellness programs
- Educate employees on health and safety topics.
- Document pertinent patient information on all required forms/documents
- Inspect AED's on-site to maintain program compliance
- Ensure all required certifications are current and remain current
- Represent the company by being courteous, professional, and a patient advocate

Qualifications:

- Current providence PHCNP or ACNP license
- Minimum of one year occupational or industrial experience preferred
- Excellent communication skills and customer services skills
- Superb attention to detail, follow-through, adaptability and multi-tasking skills
- Ability to read and interpret all required documents and write required reports and correspondence
- Work well under pressure and stressful situations
- Ability to function independently

Start Date: 6/20/18

Closing Date: Until suitable applicant is found

Cover letter and resume must be submitted via email to Emily Rhoades, HR Generalist, at hr@mobmed.com.